

Interview Assessment

Supervisor, IT Web Development

This guideline is to assist selected candidate for producing a comprehensive presentation for their panel discussion with the selection committee/ panelist of Chip Mong Group. The whole session is cascaded into two parts: the first part is the presentation with the given minutes of 30 to 45mns at maximum, while the second part is the exchange session (face to face interview) for about 30 to 60 minutes at maximum. (Total of 1h to 1h 30mn)

1. Self-Background and Strategic Presentation (30mns to 45mns)

- A. Provide a brief overview of your expertise, qualifications, and experiences, and why you would be the ideal candidate for the position of Supervisor, IT Web Development You may wish to include:
- Education Background
  - Current company organization chart, duties, and responsibilities
  - Outstanding achievements/accomplishments
- B. Present a strategic plan/Proposal based on your experience and understanding.
- Share your outstanding journey or project that you have handled/worked on with the timeline
    - Select one of those projects that you have developed and involved the most, especially from start to finish
    - Detail the features and functionalities and architecture
    - Task collaboration and task management
    - Project risk and challenge
  - How do you lead, manage and motivate team to deliver multi tasks effectively with a tough deadline?
  - What is your ambitious in technology?

2. Panel Interview (1hour)